Section II The purpose of this form is to provide information to you concerning insurance coverage so you can protect yourself against loss and to help prevent misunderstanding about the U.S. Government insurance coverage. It is not an effort by the U.S. Government to change responsibilities that are authorized by legislature.
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Generally, except under special circumstances, the U.S. Government and/or the U.S. Coast Guard is NOT legally responsible for loss to the resident's personal property, possessions or personal liability and the U.S. Government/U.S. Coast Guard will not cover such losses or damages.</li> <li>2. If damages or injury to U.S. Government property is caused by the resident, the resident's guest(s) or child (children), the U.S. Government will have the right to recover payments made to resolve such damages or injury.</li> <li>3. Following is a non-inclusive list of examples of possible costly misfortunes that, except for special circumstances, you could be legally responsible for:           <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Neighborhood children play street hockey and break your vehicle's windshield.</li> <li>b. Your defective electrical extension cord starts a fire, which causes damage to the building and your personal property and/or the personal property of others.</li> <li>c. A friend, or a handyman you hire, if injured, when he slips on the floor you have just waxed.</li> <li>d. You forget the bath water is running and it floods and damages your unit.</li> <li>e. Your locked car is broken into and your personal property, and that of a friend, is stolen.</li> <li>f. A burglar breaks your front door, storage room and/or storage shed lock and steals your valuables or personal property.</li> </ol> </li> <li>4. If you desire to protect yourself and your property against loss, damage, or liability, the U.S. Government strongly recommends you consult with your insurance agent and obtain appropriate coverage for fire, theft, liability, and other perils. The cost is reasonable considering the peace of mind, the protection, and the financial security that you get if you are adequately protected by insurance.</li> </ol>
